By signing below, you agree to abide by the rules and regulations of this organization.

Head coaches should attend the first monthly LSA meeting of their season and are highly encouraged to attend all LSA meetings during their season when possible. Attending the LSA meetings ensures they know the purpose and objective of LSA and teach in a way that upholds the views of LSA. Each team shall have one head coach and up to 3 assistants. The coaches shall be responsible for their team's conduct on or off the field, while acting as head or assistant coach. Head coaches are responsible for holding a pre-season meeting to discuss the objective of your season, rules of your division, hand out, read, discuss, and sign a parent code of ethics with all parents at your meeting, discuss practice times, involvement of parents according to your philosophy, and any other necessary information. Any coach, assistant or head, ejected from a game may be brought before the LSA Board and will be subject to disciplinary procedures. A written explanation must be provided by each head coach. The coach will be suspended for one game after the first incident occurs. A 2nd ejection will result in ejection for the remainder of the season. A 3rd ejection will result in a permanent ejection from the league for a period of 5 years. Any coach who has been sanctioned, or placed on probation, by LSA, or any league LSA participates in, shall not be allowed to manage or coach a team until proof of the suspension being lifted is, in writing and on file with the LSA Board. Must be 21 years old or older within the current season year to be a head coach. If a coach, parent, or person is asked to leave an LSA event whether on or in an LSA facility or out of town, he/she will be subject to LSA approval for continuation to see or participate in games.
